Guests & Visitors, p. 5

- 10/07/84 - about 8:30 AM -- I heard a car pull up & then came a knocking at the door. Someone by the name of Bart (I believe he said) - I don't remember his last name, even though he said it. He said he was to meet someone (he mentioned the name) at the Elkdale Baptist Church. Bart was confused.
He said he forgot that the congregation moved to West Cliffs. Bart said - "I'm the stone dealer from the top of the hill. I'm in the little trailer." He must mean Dundoff.
I shall investigate. Perhaps he can provide me with a piece of flagstone for under my wood-burning stove.
